

“Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.”

Philippians 4:6-7

As we as a nation prepare to inaugurate a new President, let's pray that under his leadership our country will acknowledge God's role in providing this new President for us; and let's pray that our country this year will come to recognize Jesus as the Christ, the King of King and the Lord of Lords.

Let's also pray for President Obama's safety; and that God will grant him the wisdom, courage, and strength that he will need to lead us through these challenging next four years.

Let's continue to pray for the safety of the men and women of our armed forces serving their country here and overseas, and let's pray for the cause of peace and justice around the world during this great time of struggle and challenge.

May God grant us His peace as we look for the coming of His son Jesus the Christ in whose name we pray.

Wes